Fanni's White Book (10)

Fannis hvide bog (10)

Fanni's Hvide Book is the tenth in a series of 10 small book, about the imaginative play of Fanni. Currently nominated for one of the prestigious prizes at the 28. Biennale of Illustrations Bratislava and sold in translation to China Mainland and South Korea.

Inger Tobiasen is one of the best-known Danish illustrators of children's books – with her recognisable style, she catches the sentiments of children beautifully and she has provided artwork for many books, also by other authors.

SYNOPSIS

It's snowing. Fanni puts on her white winter clothes and becomes nearly invisible in the white world. She builds a snowman, he has a red nose, so he is easier to find in the white world. The snowman comes alive and takes her to the place where Bob walks around and paints the world in colour, because he doesn't like white. Fanni does, she likes all colours.

REVIEWS

"A reader reported that her 5-year-old child suffers from high-functioning autism. This is the first time he has read a book in its entirety and read 5 titles at a time. Our editor felt sincerely happy. Thank you very much for your creativity and work. Somewhere in the world, there is a child who is happy because of reading your series. It is a very remarkable achievement." – (Note to the author from her Chinese publisher: Beijing Yutian Hanfeng Book Co., Ltd)
