Thorbjørn Christoffersen is a Danish illustrator, film director and animator.

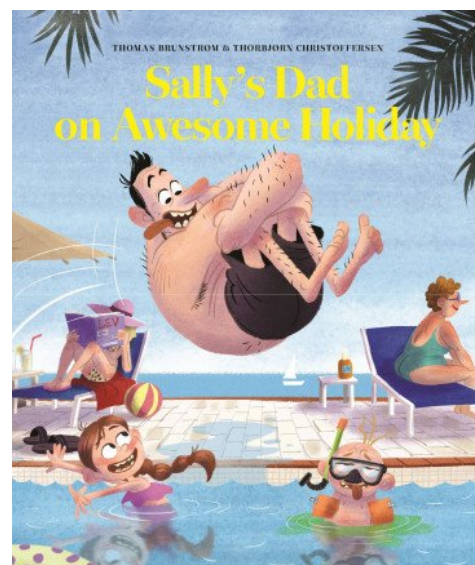

SYNOPSIS

Sally is going on holiday to an All-Inclusive-Country with her little brother Eddie, and Mum and Dad. But is it really true when Dad says that adults don't have to use sunscreen? And that fries and ketchup from the buffet count as vegetables? Is it true that no one abroad understands her language? And did her Dad really run all the way to Italy when he was a boy, because there were no aeroplanes then? Sally will have an awesome (and madly embarrassing) holiday with her dad.
