

Helle Perrier

The Blue Planet (1) - The Sea Tremors

Den Blå Planet (1) - Havet skælver

New easy-reader series, aimed at 9+, incorporating the UN World Goals. The first trilogy, The Blue Planet, contains 6 of the UN goals and extensive educational material exists. Two further trilogies, The Yellow Planet and The Grey Planet, covering the remaining UN goals, are under way. Each trilogy can be read independently.

Helle Perrier (b. 1977) is a writer and one of the founders of the publishing house, Krabat. She is interested in the fantastical, the queer and the crazy. A lot of her stories take place in universes where anything can happen.

SYNOPSIS

Kora and Keanu live in domes underneath the sea in the Pacific Ocean. They live in safety behind a fence. They have had to build this fence to protect themselves from the gigantic worms living in the sea, which can eat an entire u-boat in one mouthful.

One day, an earthquake causes one of the domes to crack.

Kora and Keanu set out in their underwater boat to see if something has happened to the fence...

The Sea Tremors is the first book in the trilogy, The Blue Planet.

With colour illustrations by Aske Schmidt Rose.

REVIEWS

"A very exciting series where the plot is well composed, while future climate issues are made clear to the reader. The books are easy to read in an accessible language with few short whole sentences on each page." – (Lektørdtalelse - Library Review)
