The Blue planet (2) - Death in the Deep

Den Blå Planet (2) - Døden i dybet

New easy-reader series, aimed at 9+, incorporating the UN World Goals. The first trilogy, The Blue Planet, contains 6 of the UN goals and extensive educational material exists. Two further trilogies, The Yellow Planet and The Grey Planet, covering the remaining UN goals, are under way. Each trilogy can be read independently.

Helle Perrier (b. 1977) is a writer and one of the founders of the publishing house, Krabat. She is interested in the fantastical, the queer and the crazy. A lot of her stories take place in universes where anything can happen.

SYNOPSIS

A mutant worm is on the loose in Kiribati.

The worm has destroyed the electricity supply to the domes. Without electricity, no oxygen. Kora and Keanu have to sail up to the surface to rescue everyone living under the sea. Keanu steers the uboat through the blue sea, where death is lurking.

Death in the Deep is the second book in the trilogy, The Blue Planet.

With colour illustrations by Aske Schmidt Rose.

REVIEWS

"A very exciting series where the plot is well composed, while future climate issues are made clear to the reader. The books are easy to read in an accessible language with few short whole sentences on each page." – (Lektørualelse - Library Review)
