

Karin Brunk Holmqvist

The Lady with the Bust

Damen med bysten

A heart-warming tale full of humour and wisdom from best-selling Swedish author

Winner of the prestigious Piratenpriset 2021, Karin Brunk Holmqvist is one of Sweden's most loved authors, her books are all written with heart and humour and with the important message that it is never too late to change your life.

SYNOPSIS

Lovisa and Elvi - also referred to as Pair of Queens - are best of friends, living cosily next to each other in the small village of Hammenhög, Österlen, Sweden.

The pair set out to the Antique Round in Simrishamn to have Lovisa's sculpture, also referred to as "Helga Mueller", assessed. There she falls prey to the small-time crook, Edward, who has made it his sad (a comical) way of life to trick unsuspecting spinsters into thinking he is looking for love.

Sensible Elvy immediately sees through his pretence, but Lovisa is really flattered - so flattered that she does not notice that Jens - their shy friend at home also has a fond eye on her.

Original Language: Swedish

Original Publisher: Bokfabriken

Published: September, 2019

192 pages

Category: Adult Fiction

Genre: Feel-good

Film Rights: Babel-Bridge Literary Agency

Theatre Rights: Babel-Bridge Literary Agency

Territories Handled

World Rights (Babel Bridge)

Territories Sold

Norwegian: Vigmostad & Bjørke