

Sara Ejersbo

The Haunted Baker

Den Forfulgte Bager

Step-siblings, Frida and Frederik, once more help solve a case, which the adults don't manage to get to the bottom of themselves. This is the third book in Sara Ejersbo's popular The Hotel Mysteries series.

Sara Ejersbo (b. 1980) studied Comparative Literature and attended the Copenhagen Writers' School for Children's Literature. She made her debut in 2012 with The Zombie Cat and has since published almost 60 books for children and adults.

SYNOPSIS

Everyone is gathered for the annual town festival. Frida and Frederik are helping with the cake competition, until one of the cakes is destroyed.

A cake doesn't jump off a table by itself, and Frida and Frederik want an explanation. When they talk to the unlucky contestant, it turns out that she has had several strange accidents - and they are getting worse and worse.

Can Frida and Frederik find out who is behind them before things get too dangerous?

The Hotel Mysteries is a modern detective series full of puzzling cases, mysterious clues, and exciting investigations. The Haunted Baker is the third book in the series.

REVIEWS

"Well-written and exciting, without being scary. Frida and Frederik are clever and curious children who can solve mysteries that adults can't figure out. These are real detective stories!" – (Danish Library Centre (Dansk Bibliotekscenter))

"Exciting, well-written ... good dialogue, great character descriptions and a mystery that is only solved in the final pages." – (Danish blog, The Bookbot (Bogbotten))
