

Sara Ejersbo

Wolf Pack in Danger

Ulveflok i fare

The second book in Sara Ejersbo's modern and mysterious detective series for tweens is ready and this time the step-siblings, Frida and Frederik, embark on yet another exciting mission with their dog, Marley.

Sara Ejersbo (b. 1980) studied Comparative Literature and attended the Copenhagen Writers' School for Children's Literature. She made her debut in 2012 with The Zombie Cat and has since published almost 60 books for children and adults.

SYNOPSIS

The wolf has returned to the forests behind Hotel Hanegal, but not everyone is thrilled. A nature guide takes Frida and Frederik on a trip to spot the shy animals, but one of the pack's cubs is missing.

When Frida and Frederik soon find a trap hidden in the forest, they are sure that someone has been hunting the protected animals. The police think it's just nature's way and won't do anything about it until there is more evidence. Can Frida and Frederik solve the mystery of the missing wolf cub before more of them disappear?

Wolf Pack in Danger is the second book in The Hotel Mysteries series.

REVIEWS

"Well-written and exciting, without being scary. Frida and Frederik are clever and curious children who can solve mysteries that adults can't figure out. These are real detective stories!" – (Danish Library Centre (Dansk Bibliotekscenter))

"Exciting, well-written ... good dialogue, great character descriptions and a mystery that is only solved in the final pages." – (Danish blog, The Bookbot (Bogbotten))
