Søren Jessen

Everything has an End

Alting ender altid

Beautifully illustrated graphic novel, aimed at 10-14 year-olds; a compelling point of departure for conversations about war.

Søren Jessen is an award-winning Danish author/illustrator of children's books and graphic novels.

SYNOPSIS

In a basement, deep underneath a war-torn city, a child is hiding with his dad. Drones and missiles continue to hit and it is very dangerous to be outside. You can only go out at night. They cannot escape the city, as it is under siege by the enemy's soldiers and all bridges across the river have been destroyed.

But one night as they are searching for food and water, they lose their way in the bombed-out streets of the city and they end up at the river. Here they find something that they did not expect...

REVIEWS

"It is difficult to call "Everything has an End" anything other than a small masterpiece... when you start reading, you get spellbound by the artwork, as well as the text. With hypnotic illustrations and a typography that weaves itself around the pictures and become a part of the aesthetic expression... It is awe-inspiring that you can compress a tale in such a beautiful and intense way." – (Kristeligt Dagblad)

"Incredibly beautiful and poetic tale in pictures, which - with great compassion - describes the loneliness, fear and insecurity experienced by the young main character while in hiding under the wartorn city." – (Library Review (Lektørdtalelse))

BudgiEVIL

Ondulaten

Laugh-out-loud "pet horror" in new comic book aimed a 5-8 year-olds.

Zenia Johnsen (b. 1975) is an author and illustrator, with a past as librarian, reviewer, editorial consultant and a member of the prize committee of the Cultural Ministry.

The artist, StineStregen, has earned herself lots of fans with her original, recognisable illustration style.

Bastian desperately wishes for a pet and mum completely agrees. Bastian needs to learn to be a responsible person and a pet is perfect for that. Bastian would ideally like to have a soft, cute rabbit, but mum does not think that is a good pet. A budgie is much better: it is easy to keep and completely innocuous. So that's what they get.

The discussions continue - now it's about the name: Bastian would like to call it Sweet Pea, but mum insists on Chirpy. However, neither Bastian nor the budgie agree on this. Because it turns out that it isn't an ordinary budgie that they have bought. It is a BudgiEVIL and how on earth are you going to escape such a species?

Growth Pains

Voksenværk

A graphic novel about life as a woman, seen through StineStregen's vulnerable, funny and sharp pen.

The artist, StineStregen, has earned herself lots of fans with her original, recognisable illustration style.

SYNOPSIS

What happens when you start to get a grip on education and working life - and everyone around you take the plunge with couplehood and children? And how do your surroundings react when you actually don't wish to have children?

StineStregen handles sensitive topics in her usual superior balance between vulnerability and humour.

REVIEWS

"What I love the most about the book, is the main character's solidarity, love and eagerness to understand other women's situation." – (Kristeligt Dagblad)

"It is a moving and engaging book. StineStregen gets into all angles of being voluntarily childless. There is a caring approach to both those with and without children, but at the same time a sense of sharp societal satire." – (Lektørdtalelse (Library review))

Kitty Poo III

Møgmis: en rædsom rolling og en kattepine af dimensioner (3)

The third instalment in the hugely popular new graphic novel series, about a life and death pet war between a boy and his cat. A bestseller in Denmark and winner of several awards, the series is sold in eight translation markets so far. There are currently six books in the series and a 7th planned for Christmas 2025.

Sophie Souid is an award-winning Danish children's book author known for her great humorous writing.

Thomas Hjorthaab is a well-known Danish children's book illustrator whose art style is known to be funny, punk and bursting with emotion.

SYNOPSIS

In the third book, teenage boy, Ziggie, and his vengeful, cunning cat, Kitty Poo, continue to blame, fight and love to hate each other.

However, a small distraction enters the scene, as Ziggie's small cousin, Marie, comes to visit. Suddenly, someone wants to play with Kitty Poo. She calls him Sweetie Pie and Farty Poopy and she is in general a terrible brat. In fact, here is for once something Kitty Poo and Ziggie can agree on. Kitty Poo puts his evil plans to eradicate Ziggie on hold and decides to teach Cousin Marie a lesson. But it does not go according to plan. Not at all, actually...

The first book, KITTY POO: REVENGE IS SWEET AND REEKS OF FISH! won the Best Graphic Novel of the Year Award by The Copenhagen Libraries.

Both the first and second books were nominated for the Ping Prize.

The fourth book is currently nominated for the Orla Prize.

John Kenn Mortensen

Night Terror

Natteræd

With a over 300.000 followers on SoMe, John Kenn has status of cult illustrator of monsters and Night Terror is his latest stunning book. John is currently shortlisted for the Cultural Ministry's Illustrator Prize with this particular book.

John Kenn Mortensen, the Danish cult illustrator, celebrated by fans around the world for his incredibly detailed illustrations of monsters.

SYNOPSIS

John Kenn Mortensen is the man behind the cult-hit Post-it Monsters (UK: Sticky Monsters), which has sold thousands of copies around the world and is published in UK, Czech Republic, Denmark, France and Italy.

Now an eagerly awaited follow-up has arrived, jam-packed with new, exciting drawings.

When your nightmare is so vivid that you can no longer keep dream and reality apart.

In Night Terror, John Kenn Mortensen has collected his most extreme monster drawings; drawings that centre on the nightmare, its nature and creatures. With a foreword by Danish author, Peter Adolphsen, he has composed a night symphony that sheds light on the merciless horror of our worst dreams.

REVIEWS

"It was my recent good fortune to be introduced to the work of John Kenn Mortensen and my even greater fortune to be privileged to publish this work — by turns, playful, funny, wicked, stunningly imaginative, and, of course, masterfully rendered, like a combination of Edward Gorey and Bernie Wrightson, but every bit his own man." – Gary Groth (Publisher of Fantagraphics)

"It's all the nightmares of my childhood gathered together in one place to party. So much more terrifying than slashers and stalkers and evil clowns and monstrous political hatchetmen: these are the real terrors. The ones waiting in the shadows or under the bed or behind the half-closed door. The ones you will encounter beneath the street light when you walk home alone. This is their book. And now it's yours." – Neil Gaiman (Endorsement for the US edition)

A Christmas Bestiary

Julebestiarier

A mesmerizing peak at the beasts that enter our world during the cosy time of Christmas.

Benni Bødker is one of Denmark's leading writers of horror fiction for children and YA. His books have been translated into 12 languages.

John Kenn Mortensen, the Danish cult illustrator, celebrated by fans around the world for his incredibly detailed illustrations of monsters.

SYNOPSIS

Christmas is full of traditions that we love to take part in, but that we ultimately do not know the background of. This wasn't the case for our ancestors. They knew that Christmas isn't just the season of joy, but certainly also a season of pain. For them the month of Christmas was not only the darkest time of the year; it was also a dangerous time when the creatures of the netherworld appear among humans, and the portals to other worlds are thrown open.

This is still how it is. It's just that we are no longer equipped to cope. A Christmas Bestiary will hopefully help you survive.

Søren Jessen

The Fish Girl

Fiskepigen

An IBBY Honour nominee - an absolutely stunning graphic novel on the highly current subject of flooding and climate change - aimed at reading aloud for 10+ or reading alone for 12+.

Søren Jessen is an award-winning Danish author/illustrator of children's books and graphic novels.

SYNOPSIS

In a house on a hilltop, the autistic boy, Frede, and his older sister are home alone. A violent storm has hit their area and all land around them has been washed away by flooding, leaving their hilltop house on a small island in the sea. They are without electricity and light, waiting for their parents to find them.

Fred's sister does everything in her power to create an illusion that everything is normal – to protect her fragile younger brother. She plays with dinosaurs, makes a cozy camp underneath the dining table, bakes pancakes on the gas fire and tells a fairy tale of a girl who lives in the sea.

At the same time, she is worried and scared. Where are their parents? Will the water rise further? And how does she make the old generator in the outhouse work, so that she can create light and signal to the helicopter above that they are alive and waiting?

The book provides a beautiful and moving point of departure for a dialogue on climate change and on the importance of caring for each other when the going gets tough. There is a strong sense of hope and community in the story and the stunning illustrations provide a complete extra layer of meaning for this pearl of a story.

It will be a Long Life

Det bliver et langt liv

Wonderfully spot-on graphic novel about the challenges of growing up.

The artist, StineStregen, has earned herself lots of fans with her original, recognisable illustration style.

SYNOPSIS

It will be a long life is a collection of spot-on comic strips, describing a teenage girl's life with its happiness, sorrow and worries. The book is jam-packed with humorous energy and recognisable situations which both daughters and parents will no doubt be able to see themselves in. The book focuses on a list of relevant themes such as friendship, parent relationship, state of the world, SoMe, parties and, not least, looks – and yes, of course also boys! StineStregen portrays the insecurity, the awkward, the cool, the funny and the unknown involved in teenage life with equilibristic accuracy.

John Kenn Mortensen, the Danish cult illustrator, celebrated by fans around the world for his incredibly detailed illustrations of monsters.

SYNOPSIS

34 short poems accompanied by the most elaborate drawings of all sorts of creepy nightmares we might have.

The frame story is a house at night, out of the darkness emerge two scary figures who enter into the house, pick up a sleeping boy and carry him - bed and all - out of the house. Then the different dreams start. Have a look here:

*"I have caught myself a real nuisance of man
He is blind but has one eye that works on his left hand"*

*"Behind my granny's summer house, there is a secret path
There lies an extra-terrestrial who could really do with a bath"*

"Under my seat on the bus to school lies a bearded man who says he died in a pool"

*"Oh, I really hope that I am spinning a tale
I believe there is a living thing underneath my nail".*

SYNOPSIS

The first autumn storm shakes the trees in the street, and inside, Rufus snuggles in his best armchair while sipping his tea - with two pieces of sugar in it. The storm warns of something unforeseen and dangerous.

Soon, the most bizarre events will bring the comfortable city fox far from his safe armchair and his warm living room. As far from home as he has ever been before...

The Nordic Literature Council wrote in their motivation:

"Are we products of nature or culture? This well-known dichotomy is the focal point of this charming and amusing picture story of the fox, Rufus, who lives in the city, but one night, strays into the forest where he meets a bunch of wild foxes. Before long, a "wild and foreign feeling" takes root in Rufus who runs around playfully without clothes – quite without missing his flat, armchair and hot cup of tea. (...)

The will of the work is its own, yet the narrative manages to accommodate readers of all ages and gives them something they did not know they wanted. It's a question of going along with the story's own unique premise and allowing yourself to be absorbed by a universe that balances razor-sharp between nature and that which is cultivated – by a fox. Or is it the other way around?"

When I Came Out Skamlebben

An autobiographical Danish graphic novel, which is published in the English-language markets by SelfMadeHero.

Anne-Mette Kærulff Lorentzen is an architect, LGBT activist and author of an outstanding graphic novel about coming out.

SYNOPSIS

Forty-something Louise is married to Peter, with whom she has four children. They live in a big house, and on paper everything looks fantastic. But Louise has a secret that she barely dares to admit to herself: a burning desire for women. When I Came Out is the story of a woman who has met society's expectations throughout her life but finally realizes that she has not been true to herself.

From first-time creator Anne-Mette Kærulff Lorentzen, this bold and elaborate piece of autobiographical work addresses personal anxieties about coming out later in life and documents her jump from a safe, well-established, heteronormative, middle-class life to living openly as a lesbian. With beautiful drawings using anthropomorphic characters, Anne-Mette Kærulff Lorentzen tells her coming-out story with charming sensitivity and a loving humour.

REVIEWS

"A brave debut, which in a straight-forward and unpretentious way grasps important discussions about diversity, gender and sexuality" – (4 hearts in Politiken)
