SYNOPSIS

Bastian's mum is sick and tired of his mess. Bastian thinks he has it all under control. He knows exactly where everything is. But mum is tough. If Bastian doesn't learn to tidy up, he'll never play PlayStation again.

Bastian takes the easy way out and pushes everything into his cupboard, but then something mysterious happens. Out of the mess emerges a monster that is incredibly soft and silly, but unfortunately also completely uncontrollable.

And what should Bastian do now? If his mum discovers that his mess has turned into a monster, there's probably a zero per cent chance that he'll ever be allowed to play PlayStation again.

REVIEWS

"A terrific and truly exciting crime series that is also serious and tough. Well-written with fluid, easy language, the book is hard to put down. You're rooting for Bille all the way through, and you can't wait to see what happens in the next volume. The grey-toned illustrations support the harsh noir atmosphere very well." – (DBC (Danish Library Centre)

Line Malling Schmidt is a Danish author and illustrator of children's books.

SYNOPSIS

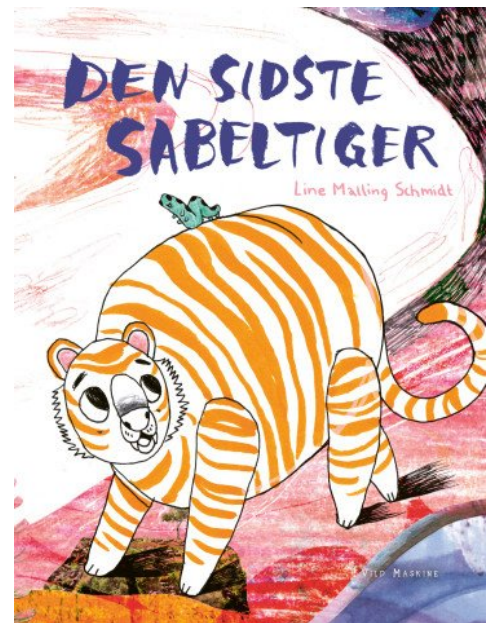

The smilodon sleeps in its den, but wakes up when a natural disaster hits the earth. It is alone and can't find its family. Together they set out to search for smilodon's relatives, even though the caterpillar has problems of its own.

Along the way, not just one, but two miracles happen.

REVIEWS

"A tribute to nature's ability to survive, but also to imagination and the imaginary power of the child... The Smilodon is brightly coloured, almost screaming in its choice of colours ... a slightly old-fashioned and very endearing artwork style ... Schmidt's [...] images of animals and landscapes are fascinating. The seriousness is countered by the playful style" – (Weekendavisen)

The Story of a Boy who is (maybe) called Torben

Historien om en dreng der (måske) hedder Torben

A moving, atmospheric illustrated novel aimed at 6-10 year-olds.

Sabine Lemire (b. 1974) is a graduate of the Danish Design School and The Duperré School of Applied Arts in Paris. Short-listed for Deutscher Jugendbuch Preis 2019 with MIRA.

Rasmus Meisler is an award-winning and widely celebrated illustrator, based in Copenhagen.

SYNOPSIS

A boy lives alone in a little house. He is mostly on his own. He can no longer remember what his name is - it been too long since anyone said his name. It's possible that there was once a lady living there, who called him Sausage, but he is not quite sure.

One day he gets a letter from the school: the boy has to attend and learn maths and sit still in class. Luckily, he meets the girl, Kirsten, who cannot comprehend why he doesn't have a name.

Maybe they can find a suitable name for him together?

REVIEWS

"It is a really lovely and moving book with lots of food for thought and conversion sparks - on e.g. loneliness, gender identity and lack of responsible adults. The few adults in the book are rather caricatured and awful. The teacher is tired of children and bullies Kirsten because she cannot spell; the boy lives alone without any adults around; and it is indicated that Kirsten is being hit at home. Even if the book includes several serious topics, it is neither sentimental, nor heavy." – (Lektørdtalelse - Library review)

SYNOPSIS

It is a community workday in the block of flats where Sun lives. Together they have to paint, sweep, and remove garbage. However, to Sun this kind of work is just as bad as getting your nails cut. And going to bed early. And cheese. She'd prefer to avoid it.

On the other hand she loves party, cinnamon buns and sweets.

But how does she get her fair share without taking part in the work?
